

Coweta County Remembered

Seniors of the 1966 Newnan High School Football Team are shown in this photo from the files of late Times-Herald sports editor Johnny Brown. From left are, front, Scott Bowie, Jim Stripling, Charles Lowery, Joe Hudson; middle, Ronald McLemore, Mayo Royal, Mark Holloway, Scotty McCarthy, Bob Hammock; back, Johnny Turner, Alan Wood, David Wagner, Eddie Traylor, Eddie Morris. The group was coached by Max Bass in the first year of his 29-year career in Newnan. The team was undefeated in regular season play.

The Newnan-Coweta Historical Society coordinates Coweta County Remembered, which appears in each Sunday issue of The Times-Herald. To submit a photo or item, call Herb Bridges of the Newnan-Coweta Historical Society at 770-253-4934 or contact him by mail in care of the Newnan-Coweta Historical Society, P. O. Box 1001, Newnan, GA 30264. Or contact News Editor Ellen Corker at The Times-Herald office, 770-253-1576; fax 770-253-2538; or e-mail at "ellen@newnan.com." Photos may also be brought to Ellen Corker at The Times-Herald office, 16 Jefferson St., P. O. Box 1052, Newnan, GA 30264; or to historical society volunteers at the Male Academy Museum at Temple Avenue and College Street, 770-251-0207. Please include a name and telephone number. The museum offers permanent and rotating historical exhibits with furnishings of the early 1800s, period clothing and Civil War items, and has a shop with gift items including books on Coweta County history such as its "History of Coweta County, Ga."